

let's get practical

1

Ask a new client to arrive 15 minutes before their appointment in order to complete a thorough consultation and take down all the necessary information. The client is not rushed and a relaxed environment is created!

HOW TO:

Do a first time client consultation

4

Before each treatment, always ask your client if anything has changed since you last saw them, such as medication, illness and any other treatments. This may affect the client's skin and how you will proceed with the treatment.

2

Ask for additional information. This includes birthdays, anniversary dates, number of children, etc.... When they come in for follow up treatments, you can ask them about these important things, making them feel special as these details have been remembered.

3

This, together with professional client care and an excellent Nimue treatment, will ensure repeat visits!
